(b) if so, what is the reaction of the government on this question as it determines the collective bargaining in an industry|unit|establishment;

(c) whether any proposal to call an immediate meeting of State Labour Ministers|State Labour Secretaries Conference to take steps to implement the SC decision;

(d) will Government convene the meeting of Indian Labour Conference to determine the reaction of the Central Trade Unions on this issue; and

(e) if the answer to (c), (d) and (e) are in the negative, what other steps are being proposed to improve industrial peace in the country?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Under the existing procedure, verification of membership of unions is conducted under the Code of Discipline ratified by the Indian Labour Conference in 1958. Subject to mutual consent between employers and the trade unions concerned, the verification can also be conducted through secret ballot. The judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court laying down guidelines and procedures for conducting secret ballot is confined to Food Corporation of India, based on mutual consent between the unions and FCI management.

(c) The Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) has already initiated action to comply with the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court. There is no need, therefore, to convene a Conference of State Labour Ministers| Secretaries to implement the Supreme Court decision

(d) There is no such proposal under the consideration of the Government.

(e) Government have taken several initiatives for sustained growth of harmonious industrial relations.
